Background

With an ambition to supply quality and healthy Commercial Day Old Chicks (DOC) for Broiler Chicken, Aftab established Parent Stock Farms and Hatchery in 2003. In addition to the own farms' capacity for Commercial DOC supply, the founder Chairman of Aftab Poultry Business, Late Jahurul Islam, the "Pioneer" of poultry industry in Bangladesh also introduced contract farming concept in Bangladesh for the first time. At present Aftab Hatchery has 7 fully environment controlled modern PS farms with own capacity of 470,000 PS birds rearing facilities in the country. Besides own capacity, currently AHL has 250,000 PS birds rearing capacity with 75 active contract farmers in Kishoreganj District. Aftab will established a new hatchery in the northern part of the country. Another hatchery in the southern part of the country is in the pipeline to supply healthy and high-quality commercial DOC to the marginal farmers of the country.

Nature of Business

Production and Marketing of Commercial Broiler, Layer (Male & Female) Day Old Chicks (DOC) in own controlled farms and also with different contract farms.
